

THE PRESIDENT'S

LECTURE

SERIES

2009 - 2010

ASSUMPTION
COLLEGE

The President's Lecture Series at Assumption College is a public forum in which important ethical, spiritual and human issues are illuminated and examined within the Catholic intellectual tradition.

Assumption College | 500 Salisbury St.
Worcester, MA | www.assumption.edu

Rev. Robert E. Barron, S.T.D.

Professor of Systematic Theology
University of St. Mary of the Lake

Annual Augustine Lecture

Why Augustine's Theology of God Still Matters

September 16, 2009

7pm

Hagan Campus
Center Hall

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I., S.T.D., Ph.D.

Archbishop of Chicago

D'Amour Lecture in the Catholic Intellectual Tradition

St. Augustine's Theology of Church and Contemporary Ecumenism

October 29, 2009

7pm

Hagan Campus
Center Hall

George Yancy, Ph.D.

Associate Professor of Philosophy, Duquesne University

White Gazes and the Fear of Black Bodies

February 16, 2010

7pm

Salon,
La Maison
Française

Maryann Cusimano Love, Ph.D.

Associate Professor of Politics, Catholic University of America

Religion and Peacebuilding: Practicing Resurrection Politics

March 18, 2010

7pm

Hagan Campus
Center Hall

Rev. James V. Schall, S.J., Ph.D.

Professor of Political Philosophy
Georgetown University

More Lives than Your Own: On Knowledge and the 'Wound' of Being Oneself

April 7, 2010

7pm

Salon,
La Maison
Française

All lectures in the series are open to the Assumption College community and the general public at no charge. If you are interested in attending, please call Sandy Bousquet at 508-767-7322 or e-mail sbousquet@assumption.edu.