

| Department | Chairperson | Transfer Credit Review Policy 2011-12 |
|--|--------------------------|---|
| Art, Music, Theatre & Television Arts | Patrick Corrigan | No on-line courses approved; No capstone courses approved |
| Business | Joseph Foley | No capstone courses approved: MGT400, MGT399, MGT398 No 300-level courses from a community college approved Online courses reviewed case by case |
| Eco & Global | Tom White | Case by case |
| Education | Nanho Vander Hart | Case by case |
| English | Becky DiBiasio | No accelerated online courses approved, e.g. Continuing Education Intersession onlines. Otherwise, courses reviewed case by case. |
| Modern/Classical Languages | Arlene Guerrero-Watanabe | Study abroad transfer credit limited to three courses transferred to the major, and two courses transferred into a minor. |
| History | Deborah Kisatsky | No online courses approved for major, minor, general education, or elective credit. No capstone or 300 level courses approved except through the AAS American Studies Seminar or comparable internship experience. Otherwise, courses reviewed case by case. |
| Math/Computer Science | Joseph Alfano | Case by case |
| Human Services and Rehabilitation Studies | Susan Scully-Hill | Case by case |
| Natural Sciences | Ed Dix | Case by case |
| Philosophy | Gavin Colvert | No core curriculum courses (PHI100 and Second Philosophy) approved, as these are a signature part of a student's Assumption College education, unless there is a compelling reason to do so. Elective credit approved case by case. |
| Political Science | B.J. Dobski | Case by case |
| Psychology | Peter Toscano | No on-line courses for any of the core required courses in the psychology major or minor |
| Sociology and Anthropology | Amy Gazin-Schwartz | No online and accelerated courses approved for major, minor, or general education credit. Otherwise, online courses reviewed case by case. |
| Theology | Fr. Roger Corriveau | No core curriculum courses (THE 100 and Second Theology) approved, as these are a signature part of AC's Undergraduate Core Curriculum. CCE equivalent courses may be approved as Core, provided they are taught by AC Theology faculty. No accelerated on-line courses approved, i.e. intersession courses. No online courses approved for the 200s Theology courses taught in the Undergraduate Division. . Study Abroad courses reviewed case by case, as a third Theology course satisfying one of the Humanities requirements. |

